

STATE FACTSHEET

Florida

2017

ATSDR's partner, the Florida Department of Health (DOH), assessed the public health threat from toxic chemicals in groundwater, soil, and air at the former Orlando Gasification Plant hazardous waste site. Although current on-site workers are not likely being harmed by vapors coming directly into on-site buildings from soil gas, protective health measures and monitoring cleanup are recommended at the site.